

Product Support Specialist

Benary Seed is accepting applications for a position in technical support and product marketing at the grower level. The person who fills this position will work to increase product awareness and help growers with the technical aspects of growing our products.

Team members are responsible for regional market planning and product positioning. The selected individual will participate in Pack Trials, national as well as regional trade shows, and be exposed to international markets and new product introductions.

Candidates should be self-starters and independent workers with a desire to work as part of an extended team. Strong communication skills are a must. A willingness to do extensive travel is a necessity. B.S. in Horticulture or a related field or comparable growing experience is preferred.

Benary offers a competitive salary based on experience, health benefits and vacation time.
